Dear Parent / Carers,

We hope that you had a calm and restful break and have adjusted to the autumnal darker nights.

Next week is Sceptre Week, previously known as Operation Sceptre, which is a National week of action against knife crime.

In preparation for this, I have attached a guide provided by the Home Office which will hopefully support you to have those difficult conversations with the children in your care.

If you would like further support regarding this topic, please reach out to your child's college and ask to speak to a member of the Pastoral & Welfare Team.

Best Wishes,

Sally Nichols
